freshtoday

IRELAND'S #1 SCHOOL LUNCH PROVIDER

Fortunately Food Village offers the advantage, experience and knowledge of our very successful sister company Freshtoday. Freshtoday are an established market leader in the preparation and delivery of both Hot & Cold school meals throughout Ireland. Freshtoday celebrates locally owned businesses in communities throughout Ireland. We advocate for sustainable local economies and the growth of jobs and vibrant communities. Our goal is to raise awareness of the cultural and economic benefits that local businesses provide and how supporting local businesses, supports us all.

Freshtoday are an Irish owned School lunch provider. First entering the school meal market in 2010 with a dedicated mission to provide schools and students with a high quality, nutritious daily lunch.

Following the success of the first Freshtoday production facility in Wexford, we opened 3 more production facilities across the Country based in Longford, Tipperary and Wicklow. Plus a training facility in Dublin.

Freshtoday exclusively hand craft each individual meal for each and every order. Daily we produce over 40,000+ meals, which we deliver to schools across the Country.

ALLERGY PROTECTION PROGRAMME

Data about our young population shows approximately 5 - 8% of children show some kind of allergic reactions to food. Food Village offers an Allergy Protection Programme, which allows parents or students to assign a allergy directly to their account. Once a allergy has been assigned, our system removes the ability to choose any meals or items that may cause a problem for the child.
